

Historical Commission Meeting
February 16, 2017

Attendees: Maggie Cohen; Barbara Fitzgerald; Beth Hoff. We have a quorum.

Meeting called to order at 7:27 p.m.

Minutes of the January 19th meeting approved at the end of that meeting.

Old Business

Membership - three people interviewed.

Brewer Young House - there was a recent article in the Republican. J P Morgan Chase has done some repairs. Plans still up in the air.

Demolition Delay Committee

A demolition permit application has been pulled for 822 Longmeadow St.

Inspection tour of the house by some committee members has occurred.

A meeting is scheduled for Feb. 27th. The committee will have an organizational meeting to elect a chair. This will be followed by a public hearing which will be followed by a committee vote. The snow date is Feb. 28 th.

Nolumbeka Project

Maggie will compare the Nolumbeka maps with the Town of Longmeadow Engineer's map created in 2016 to determine where the Nolumbeka Project's areas of interest are located.

Frederick Law Olmsted National Historic Site speaker is scheduled for April 18th. The Longmeadow Historical Society will help publicize the event.

Research Projects - no news to report.

New Business

Longmeadowe Days are coming.

Maggie submitted the Historical Commission's annual report to the Town.

Next meeting March 16 at 7:00 p.m.

Submitted by

Barbara Fitzgerald

Minutes approved unanimously.

Meeting adjourned at 8:08 p.m.